OVERVIEW OF KERALA

Kerala, a state on India's tropical Malabar Coast, has nearly 600km of Arabian Sea shoreline. It's known for its palm-lined beaches and backwaters, a network of canals. Inland are the Western Ghats, mountains whose slopes support tea, coffee and spice plantations as well as wildlife. National parks like Eravikulam and Periyar, plus Wayanad and other sanctuaries, are home to elephants, langur monkeys and tigers.

Capital: Thiruvananthapuram

Best Time To Visit: September to March

KOCHI

Kochi (also known as Cochin) is a city in southwest India's coastal Kerala state. It has been a port since 1341, when a flood carved out its harbour and opened it to Arab, Chinese and European merchants. Sites reflecting those influences include Fort Kochi, a settlement with tiled colonial bungalows and diverse houses of worship. Cantilevered Chinese fishing nets, typical of Kochi, have been in use for centuries.

ALAPPUZHA BACKWATERS

Alappuzha (or Alleppey) is a city on the Laccadive Sea in the southern Indian state of Kerala. It's best known for houseboat cruises along the rustic Kerala backwaters, a network of tranquil canals and lagoons. Alappuzha Beach is the site of the 19th-century Alappuzha Lighthouse. The city's Mullakkal Temple features a traditional design. Punnamada Lake's snake boat races are a well-known annual event.

ADVENTURE ACTIVITIES TO EXPLORE

The Old Kochi Bike Tour

This tour throws open a book of knowledge about Kerala's history while traveling routes less known by means of the simple two wheels of a bicycle.

The flow of events is magical as you bike past monuments that stick on as living templates to the by gone era of merchants from as far as China, Europe and Africa.

Vallam Kali (Snake Boat Race)

It is mainly conducted during the season of the harvest festival Onam in autumn. Vallam kali includes races of many kinds of paddled longboats, the traditional boats of Kerala. The race of chundan vallam ('snake boat') is the major event.

Sunset Cruise

Serene backwaters, lagoons with feathery coconut palms and picturesque islands make it an attractive tourist destination. Quaint cantilever Chinese fishing nets, the beautiful Malabar Coast and the setting sun make a perfect background for a cruise in the sea. Enjoy a cruise in the waters around this city which is also known as the Queen of the Arabian Sea.
